Fishie Redivivus

(To the Editor of the Interior Journal.)
PINEVILLE, July 11. — News that would be of any importance to your readers is very scarce up in these parts. The prices are good for a large crop of fish, the late rains having brought in, out very much. A good crop is needed, as there is now selling for $1.10 to $1.25 per bushel. All of the corn that can be had here comes either from Virginia or by the way of Wheeling. It is all about taken care of. The crop is said to be very large and the yield good. Very little wheat is raised in the county. Blackberries are a favorite fruit. Large quantities grow on the side of the mountains and in the old fields. They are packed and brought into town by the basket and are ready to sell at about 10 cents per gallon. They are used for making jam, preserves and wine. A great deal of the latter is made in this county. That is, it is manufactured for home consumption. The apple crop is tolerably short. In some portions of the county there is a good peach crop. Apples and peaches will find a ready sale along the line of the railroad. There is no scarcity of vegetables; there is plenty of all kinds for home use.

Meigs Carpenter & Long, who have been building the railroad just across the river from town, have completed their work and will start to tear down the bridge, where there have been many accidents. By their legitimate conduct while in this place, they have endeavored themselves to the citizens very much. Work on the other sections between town and Barboursville is not being pushed as rapidly as it might, it seems to me. From the time work was commenced on this line, the cars ought to be running now. We are informed that track laying has been commenced at Corbin and that the track will be laid as far as the tunnel at once. Oatfield, J. A. Dickey, will please hurry up the tunnel.

At last Pineville is to have a church house. A thing that will be new to the history of Bell county. The house is to be built by the united efforts of the Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the citizens of Pineville and Bell county. The Church Extension agrees to give $100 towards the erection of a house at this place, provided at least that much could be raised here. The citizens have subscribed very liberally and more than the amount required has been made up. Mr. J. J. Gibson donates a quarter-acre lot, worth $250. E. D. Davis and Dinman are the men who have been instrumental in getting up this good work. The members of the Christian Church are also trying to raise money to erect a house of worship at this place. We would be glad if they could be as successful as the Methodist Church, South. The Northern Methodists talked about building a house here some time since, but we suppose it has fallen through, as nothing has been said about it lately. The mountains will be the best part of Kentucky. Much interest is manifested in schools and churches. The Methodist Episcopal Church seems to have a majority of members in this county.

We have heard of some large sales in real estate having been made in the last few days. One is the sale by the Asher Bros. of about 6,000 acres of Pine mountain lands for about $175 per acre. The other is a sale by J. J. Gibson of his farm near town and other mountain lands, amounting to about 1,800 acres, for $15,000. Judge Thor, H. Hargis is the purchaser, it is understood, for a company of Louisville gentlemen, who will lay out the Gibson farm into town lots, donate a public square and try to have the county seat remain at Pineville. If this should be done, there is no reason why Pineville should not be one of the most flourishing manufacturing towns in the State. The timber, coal and water are here, with unlimited quantities of iron ore just across the Cumberland mountains, only 14 miles away. The best locations on the river for saw mills are here; Straight Creek comes into the river just opposite where the town would be, with Clear Creek about a half a mile above. Straight Creek is about 25 or 30 miles in length and Clear Creek is nearly as long; and the timber on either is almost inexhaustible. The finest timber I have ever seen is on Straight Creek, about 12 miles from its mouth.

For a long time Pineville has been accused with illicit whisky dealers. The authorities have asked them to desist and have received promises that the traffic should cease, but all the time the selling has been going on. A few days since the county and police judges, having become tired of having promises made only to be broken, called in some witnesses and had them make affidavits against some of the parties who were accused of selling and placed warrants in the hands of the sheriff. The parties refused to be arrested when called upon by the sheriff. The sheriff went out to summon a posse and while he was gone the parties he was after got out of the house and took to the woods. As the officer and posse came up they fired upon them from ambush, but no one was hurt. The firing was returned by the posse with like effect. The posse came back into town and dispersed. The next morning two of the parties wanted came into town and gave themselves up and were admitted to jail. After bail was executed they began to drink whisky and make threats against members of the sheriff's posse, who were summoned to help arrest them. One of them got to cursing a member of the posse, when he was knocked down. That seemed to make them worse and they got their Winchester rifles and intended to kill the man who knocked one of them down and would shoot any of the others that came in the way. After talk like this for nearly all day, two of them started down street with their guns and pistols, and when they had got about even with his house, J. E. Rice, the man whom they had threatened to kill on sight, stepped out of the door and said: "Here I am, gentlemen, I understand you are going to kill me on sight," at the same time firing his pistol at one of them twice without effect as he ran off. The other had got a little past the door when Rice began to fire, but he ran also and attempted to raise his gun as he ran, but did not get it to go off. Rice dropped his pistol, picked up his Winchester and fired one shot at the one who had cut a hole in the window of his coat, without touching the skin. No arrests were made. There was some little excitement in town, but not enough to speak about. Since then the parties to the shooting have met and made friends. Whiskey selling has not been stopped yet, but the citizens of the town are determined that it shall cease and if it cannot be checked one way it will be another way. The end is not yet and a great deal of trouble is expected. In all probability there will be just such a war as between county has just passed through. The sale of whisky in Pineville can and will be stopped, it is a few of those who are dealing in the stuff have to be sacrificed.

THAT NEW BONNET.—How dear to my heart is that new fashioned bonnet, the hat that I bought as a gift to my wife, a small piece of straw with an ostrich plume on it, the last one I'll buy while I still have my life. The hat with a brim and a big winging feather, and tattered traps that I can't even name, with stuffed birds and roses and pieces of leather, and a bill from the dealer as long as my frame; that evasive spring bonnet, that new-fashioned bonnet, that fancy priced bonnet that knocked my purse lame.

A little Christian boy was dying. He closed his eyes and for the moment his mother thought he was dead. She asked: "Charlie, do you know me?" But there was no response, and a clover still she pressed her tearful face upon his cold ear and asked with indelible pathos, "Charlie, do you know your mother?" Charlie opened his eyes and said: "Why call me back, mother? I was half way up stairs." And with that his spirit fled away. —[Richmond Herald]

YUM YUM.—A new drink, known as the cardinal smash, is now to be had at the frequenters of up-town cafes. Half a dozen strawberries washed in the bottom of a glass by old fashioned lemon stick, a sprinkle of powdered sugar, an emphatic amount of whiskey and a moderate supply of chopped ice do the business. Persons who know say that exhilaration and a feeling of large proprietary rights dwell some where in the cardinal smash. —[New York Sun]

When the master mechanic of the California Southern Railroad shop was recently moving to San Bernardino, his speckled hen, attracted by the fresh straw, jumped into a box in which a table was packed, to lay. She made her nest under the table, and was not missed until after the box had been nailed up. When the box arrived at San Bernardino several days later, the hen was found complacently sitting on five eggs.

A Mendocino gentleman wrote to B. H. Nye, the bald-headed humorist, and asked him if he could give a recipe to make hair grow, and B. H. sent this reply: "Take your hair injector for money and buy a town lot in a growing town that supports a home paper and advertise and goes ahead, and you will be well-fixed, and a man who is well-fixed don't care much whether he has any hair or not."

"The White Caps," a gang of Crawford county regulators, started out the other night and after administering 65 lashes to James Temple, called upon John Nausea, who defended himself by knocking two of them down with his fist and putting the whole gang to flight with the epoke of a wagon wheel.

"Don't you suppose," said a member of the police force, "that a policeman knows a rogue when he sees him?" "No doubt," was the reply, "but the trouble is that he does not seize a rogue when he knows him."

Even fishermen who wouldn't steal are always ready to nook something if they get a chance. —[Journal of Education]

MT. VERNON, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

Will Davis denies the charge of being a washing machine agent.

In a letter to his friends here, Mr. J. K. McClary, now at Hot Springs, N. C., says he is improving some in his rheumatic troubles.

James Simpson, while hewing cross ties Tuesday, near Brodhead, made a glancing lick with his broadaxe, striking his left foot and cutting off two toes.

But a small crowd was in town to-day to hear young Morrow speak. The gentleman made the best speech for his party that has been delivered here during this campaign.

Alfred Lantz, the young man who was married near Rowland last week, seems particularly fond of marrying, this being his second venture within three years; his first wife is yet living.

Joe Fredericks, while working in the stone quarry Saturday, had something like a sunstroke, but could not tell whether it was caused from heat or from the effects of the strong and venerable pipe he was smoking.

The following noted eaters from this vicinity will be present at the barbecue to-day, Thursday: James McKirzie, Andy Fish, Gaines Adams, Loge Thompson, John Brown, C. H. and Casper Williams and half a dozen others. They will "let no savory burgen escape."

Mr. John Melvin has announced himself a candidate for the legislature on the prohibition ticket and likewise the Rev. Rogers, of Copper Creek, on the same ticket and for the same office. They must think all the votes will be on their side from the number of candidates coming out.

W. B. Trenchard, formerly a civil engineer on the K. C. road, is here from Mississippi visiting friends. Mr. Harry Miller returned from Cincinnati Monday. It is reported that he married while there.

Mr. J. L. Joplin left at the depot Tuesday a blackberry briar that measured 15 feet, which he had cut from his land near town. He says he has noticed paragraphs in newspapers speaking of briars 10 and 10 feet long, so he concluded to search his "patch" to beat the record which he has done so far as the oldest inhabitant hereabouts know.

Gilbert Culey, a young farmer living near Waldie in this county was shot and dangerously wounded Monday night by Thomas Ward, a neighboring farmer. Thomas Ward and his brother William came to this county from Ohio and bought a farm from Wiley Culey, the father of the wounded man, and have been running the farm and cutting the timber since. Young Culey had been working for the Wards and on Monday they were to have a settlement, but they could not agree to each other's accounts, so it was agreed by the parties to leave the settlement to two neighboring farmers, Henry Bransman and Jesse Fish. Monday night about 9 o'clock, in company with Andy Norman, he called at the house of the Ward brothers and were admitted. After talking a while the subject of the settlement came up and Culey became very abusive when Norman took him by the arm and asked him to come with him and get home, remarking at the time that had he known there was any trouble he would not have come. Culey became frenzied, pulled his knife and rushed at young Ward, who drew his pistol and shot at Culey, striking him in the chin, breaking his jaw, knocking out two teeth and passing on through the roof of his tongue into his neck. Norman then fled, going to a neighbor's and telling them of the shooting. No one went to the house and about midnight Coffey managed to get down, where he had considerable difficulty in getting admittance on account of his being unable to talk and make himself known. Mrs. Davis and Daniels attended the wounded man and say there is but little chance for his recovery. Sheriff White went to the scene of the shooting Tuesday, but could not find the Wards. It is thought they will come to town and surrender.

But All Solid for Simon Bolivar Buckner.
To the Editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL.
We, the undersigned citizens and Buckner men, of McKinney, having notified in the McKinney letter to the Southern Reporter under date of July 5th, in which the writer says, "About one half of the voters of our little village are 'Fox Men.' Among them are included the best men and finest intellects in the place." In answer to this we leave to the public at large that McKinney has about eight Fox men, who are common level with us, socially, morally and intellectually, and that McKinney has a majority of voters who are Buckner men from the tips of their hair to the ends of their toes and we know whereof we speak.

CRAB ORCHARD, LINCOLN COUNTY.

A large crowd is now gathered at Crab Orchard Springs.

Born on the 10th inst. to the wife of Mr. E. Carson, a daughter.

Miss A. C. Carson has been selected to teach the public school here.

Mr. C. C. Carson's large liver stable is rapidly nearing completion. It is now being painted.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Jones went to Danville to attend the burial of Mr. J. S. Carson's little daughter, Katie.

Blackberries are very plentiful about here and the housekeepers are now deep in the mysteries of jam making.

Young Mr. Hest began to improve very much Tuesday and his doctors now entertain hopes of his ultimate recovery.

There is talk of organizing a string band here. In years ago our town boasted of a good band and we ought now to have one by all means, for there is an abundance of good material for that purpose.

A feeling of deep sadness stole over us as we read the announcement of Mrs. J. L. Chandler's death in Tuesday's paper, for we remember Ella as one of our most fondly loved school mates and in later years as a friend beloved equally as well.

Last Tuesday a party of ladies and gentlemen from Crab Orchard Springs started out to Dripping Springs on her back. As they were going up a hill near the Springs, one lady's horse reared, threw her and fell back on her, injuring her seriously. She was put in a spring wagon and brought back to Crab Orchard Springs in a very precarious condition.

Mr. Robert L. Davis, former editor of the Barboursville News, is in Lexington on business. Mr. John A. McRoberts, of Stanford, paid us a flying visit Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Grove Kennedy, of Garrard, have been visiting relatives here. Messrs. Jas. Miller, of Louisville, and Simon Gormley, of Lexington, are here mingling with old friends. Mr. J. W. Alcorn, of Stanford, passed through town Tuesday en route to Dripping Springs. Dr. and Mrs. Arndt, of Oeneboro, have arrived and will spend the summer here.

An observer down South says an alligator's throat is an animated sewer. Everything which lodges in his open mouth goes down. He is a lazy dog and instead of hunting for something to eat, he lets his victims hunt for him. That is, he lies with his great mouth open, apparently dead like the possum. Soon a bug crawls into it, then a fly, then several gnats and a colony of mosquitoes. The alligator doesn't close his mouth yet. He is waiting for a whole drove of things. He does his eating by the wholesale. A little later a lizard will cool himself under the shade of his upper jaw. Then a few frogs will hop up to catch the mosquitoes and gnats will light on the frogs. Finally a whole village of insects and reptiles settle down for an afternoon picnic. Then all at once there is an earth quake. The big jaw falls, the alligator blinks one eye, gulps down the entire menagerie and opens his great front door again for more visitors.

Mr. Cleveland was chosen in the first instance over a formidable competitor, when the country had no knowledge of his rare ability to discharge the great public trust confided to him. He was without experience in the office to which he was elected, and this was urged against him with full force and effect. The same argument can not be used again. He has justified the faith reposed in him before trial by a record that is well-nigh unassailable. He has lost no whit of the qualifications that elected him the first time; he has added to them daily by the fruits of study and experience and is vastly stronger than he was when he was matched against the strongest and the ablest leader in the republican party. —[Charleston News and Courier]

"See that woman," said a man, pointing to a canal boat moving along the Erie. A head hidden in a checked sun-bonnet protruded from the cabin hatchway. "That woman, sir, hasn't been out of that cabin in 20 years. Fact, she can't get out of it, but her head out. Last time she came on deck was when Grant was inaugurated. The captain and mate and the two mule drivers helped. Had an awful time. Then they got her back again and she has not been out since. Last fall a dime museum man came down here and offered her big pay to exhibit herself, but when he learned that he would have to take canal boat and all, he refused to sign a contract." —[Albany Express]

Never be envious of any fellow who cuts you out with any girl. Let him sail in and pay her doctor and millinery bills, and he will be ten times more miserable than you could make him. Besides, what's the loss of one girl? Look at any bureau of statistics and you will see that the girl market is a drug. Don't be so bashful in your callow youth and you'll have less to repent of when you get to be a man, and more sense to look around you and make a bargain out of a hard lot.

It has been computed that the death rate of the globe is 67 a minute, 97,790 a day and 3,630,935 a year and the birth rate 70 a minute, 100,800 a day and 36,795,000 a year.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

F. N. GOVERNOR—SIMON BOLIVAR BUCKNER, of Hart County.
 LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR—JAMES W. BRYAN, of Madison County.
 ATTORNEY GENERAL—P. W. HARDIN, of Mercer County.
 AUDITOR—FAYETTE HEWITT, of Hart County.
 TREASURER—JAMES W. TATE, of Woodford County.
 SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—JOSEPH DESHA PICKETT, of Fayette County.
 REGISTER OF THE LAND OFFICE—THOMAS H. CORBETT, of McCracken County.
 LEGISLATOR—Dr. J. D. PETTUS, Lincoln County.

When Gen. Buckner asked Bradley at Grayson if he had charged that Proctor Knott wrote the speech the general delivered at the Lexington barbecue, he replied that one Jim Jones had told him so and that he had repeated it. This was a sneaking attempt to get out of it, for Bradley plainly made the charge on his own responsibility in his speech here, but the general, pointing the finger of scorn at him, said: "For the man who would willfully circulate such a charge, although not himself the author of it, I can, of course, have nothing but contempt. I denounce the charge as infamously false and outrageous, having no resemblance of foundation in fact. I have invited Mr. Bradley to meet me at my appointments. I now withdraw the invitation, and henceforth I decline to have anything to do with him." Bradley ought now to go into his hole and draw it in after him. He is not the equal of General Buckner in any respect and the old hero does himself proud in refusing to recognize him as such.

The Louisville Commercial shows its republican proclivities by finding fault with Secretary of State McKenzies for publishing the act authorizing a vote on the constitutional convention in democratic papers alone. In the first place this is not true for it appears in a number of republican papers we could name. When there are two papers published in a county, the secretary chooses to use the democratic paper, which is perfectly right and proper. In 99 cases out of a hundred the democratic papers have the largest circulation and would be entitled to it even from a business standpoint and he would be a nice democrat indeed who would thus work against his own party.

A WEALTHY FARMER named Jacob Robinson, near Jeffersonville, Indiana, got mad with Sam Hays because he would not pay the amount he owed him and taking a shot gun went out to hunt for him. He found him and his daughter together, and resting the gun on her shoulder he blazed away, putting seven buckshot into his heart. A man who owes an honest debt and won't pay it, if he can and most men can if they will, deserves this kind of treatment, but it is not always best to try it. A mob came near doing Robinson up and he had to be spirited off to the penitentiary to save his life.

THE ST. LOUIS people are more desirous now than ever that President Cleveland should visit the city, especially since his former acceptance of their invitation had to be withdrawn to protect the dignity of his office from insult by the grand army association. They held a mass meeting this week and appointed a delegation of 50 leading citizens to go to Washington in a body and urge his attendance at the fair to be held in that city in September. There are some other people in this country, it appears, besides the grand army of the republic.

It is gratifying to know that the Supreme Court is of the opinion that President Cleveland is a bigger man than Squire Oliver of the District of Columbia. The Squire refused to vacate when the president turned him out of office and appealed to the court, but it decided that he must go. Now if the same court would decide that the Court of Appeals of Kentucky is a bigger man than Squire Stoffer, the one who released Cornelson, we may be happy yet.

ROME, GA., a city of 12,000 population, has voted for prohibition by 520 majority. The women and the preachers turned out in every way possible attempted to shame the whisky men from voting to continue the sale of their favorite beverage. The scenes attending the election laid over those enacted at Lancaster on a similar occasion two to one.

The local option fight is getting warm in Louisville. It is not likely that it will carry, but the whisky men are scared and are putting a good deal of their doubtfully earned money into circulation to corrupt the "honest" voter.

A TOLEDO paper has answered from 21, 320 republicans in the United States, of which 11,010 express themselves for Blaine for President, 6,681 for Sherman and the rest scattering.

THE LAGRANGE Owl says it supposes since young Bradley fainted when Gov. McCrea called his father a liar, that he would have had a fit if he had called him a d—n liar instead.

TIM NEEDHAM, the temperance orator, who does not let his prohibition run away with his democracy, has been nominated by his party for representative from Grant.

—Ara C. Payne died at Burgin in his 100th year.

THE republican candidate for the Senate in the London district is a sweet scented shrub. The Somerset Herald, whose editor ought to know him, because he lives there, says that Judge Paul is an infidel, contending that the bible is false and christianity a fraud. He is a fine representative, to be sure, of the God and morality party.

BRADLEY'S day of smooth sailing is over. He struck a snag at Richmond, ran aground at Grayson and will sink into oblivion after August 1.

Most farmers have learned how to use Paris green by thoroughly mixing one pound of poison with one hundred or more of finely ground plaster. Occasionally some inexperienced person uses more and always with bad results. Too much Paris green kills tender foliage of young potato plants, and it will not kill the bugs, as it repels them and they do not eat it.

Louisville papers are boasting of a Kentuckian who is 99 years old and has never been a candidate for office. But a paper in Paducah says there is a mule near that city that is believed by its owner to be nearly 100 years old, and somehow we can't help suspecting that the two items refer to the same Kentuckian.

"Do you call this a band of picked musicians?" said a hotel manager to the leader of a summer band. "Ach! dot vos so, I hick 'em mine self," replied the bandmaster. "Well, then, you picked them before they were ripe."

THE BARBECUE.

A Royal Success, Enjoyed by 1,000's
 Producing Enthusiasm that even a Pouring Rain Could not Abate.

A GENUINE DEMOCRATIC LOVE FEAST.

Yesterday opened intensely hot, but it did not prevent the untimely flocking to the District Barbecue grounds in the beautiful woodland of Captain Tom Elkin to the variously estimated numbers of 5,000 to 12,000. Perhaps the mean of the two will about cover the number, but Col. W. S. Miller insists that there were fully 10,000. Excursion trains on both roads brought in large reinforcements, while others came on horseback and in every conceivable variety of vehicles. The ladies, God bless their pretty faces, were out in full force and beauty and their presence added greatly to the interest of the occasion.

The grounds were dotted here and there with tents, two speakers' stands with seats around them had been erected and as the visitors entered the great gate, from which a huge flag floated, with the word "Welcome" upon it in large letters, and the odor of the toothsome bargoo floated to his factories, he felt indeed that it was good to be there.

Nearly all the speakers were on the Lexington excursion, which was three hours late, but Senator James W. Bryan, candidate for lieutenant governor, had come to Lancaster the night before and was promptly introduced at the appointed time. He spoke for about two hours, and such a speech! He tore Bradley's figures to smithereens, showed the fallacy of that demagogue's assumptions and clothed the statement of cold facts in oratory so pleasing that he held his audience at will. It was the most complete refutation of the republican charges of democratic mismanagement we have heard and a speech that would turn the heart of the bitterest republican, were he not bound to his idols. Mr. Bryan is a man of splendid presence and as no orator has no equal of his age in the State.

The second speaker was the Hon. Evan Settle, of Sweet Owen. He is the same gentleman who electrified the State convention in his speech nominating Porter Thompson for Superintendent of Public Instruction and since then he has been in great demand as a speaker. He is possessed of genuine oratory and was filling the boys with enthusiasm, when dark clouds and rumbling thunder gave signs of a coming storm. Mr. Settle remarked that Providence was never known to interrupt a democratic speech, but he had hardly ventured the assertion before rain began to fall in torrents and before he could get to shelter his Sunday suit was spoiled. This occurred about 1 o'clock and for about an hour the programme was cut short. It never rains but what it pours and it poured for a fact. Every possible place of shelter was sought and many a pretty woman had the kinks taken out of her bangs and the starch out of her dress by the cruel down-pour.

During the rain Joe Blackburn, in his inimitable way, entertained a tent-full of people with anecdotes and lively running conversation. His mouth seems to be set for talking and he uses it early, often and to advantage. Afterwards he made a speech and as usual put the crowd in a roar. As a stump speaker he has but few equals. He has a wonderful flow of words and yesterday they flowed with a beauty and power, that carried conviction that he was dead sure he was right in all his statements.

Senator Beck, with his usual sledge hammer effect, was also one of the orators. Dealing with facts and figures is his forte and in his sturdy Scotch fashion he sent home truths that cannot be gainsayed. We would like to see him tackle Bradley and with the true figures of our State finances which he carries on his fingers' end, make that individual acknowledge that his canvass has been one of deception and chicanery.

The dressing-down which Gov. McCrea gave the republican leader at Richmond recently, has made him more popular than ever with the boys and yesterday they could hardly wait for his time to speak. When he did he was cheered to the echo and his really fine effort was listened to with the closest attention.

Senator John D. Harris made a short speech which was received with that hearty applause which shows how solid he is in these parts. Col. Mat Walton also made a neat little speech, followed by W. P. Kimball also in a happy vein and Ben Lee Herdin pronounced the benediction at 5 o'clock in a little speech that absolutely sent the boys home with enthusiasm.

NOTES

It was the biggest thing of the kind ever seen in these parts.

The tents for the committee were nicely arranged and each could always be found at its post.

The Garrard people never do anything by halves. The whole hog or none is always their motto.

Colonel Tom Corbett, always present when two or three democrats are gathered together, was there with his honest old face.

Among the newspaper men present were Messrs. W. P. Emison, of the Courier Journal, J. W. Hopper, of the Lebanon Standard, W. A. Mulline, of the Lancaster Journal and D. T. Fackler, of the Advocate.

In addition to a run on the long tables a couple of good ladies, whom we will remember in our prayers, took us off to a shady nook where they had spread out a private dinner and treated us to ices and cake as a fitting wind up to the barbecue repast.

It was the most orderly crowd ever congregated.

R. M. Bartlett came all the way from Florida to attend.

A McCreary Democratic club, 150 strong, organized in Lancaster the day before, were out in full force.

Captain Tom Richards enjoyed it more than anybody, shaking hands with old comrades he hadn't met since the war.

Nothing whatever occurred during the day to throw a damper on the enthusiasm, but the rain, and that did not affect it much.

Col. E. Polk Johnson wrote us he was coming, but did not put in an appearance. He and Colonel Sam Burdett were both greatly missed.

—MORGAN T. CRAFT, Esq., one of the biggest-hearted and best democrats in the State, was present and boiling over with enthusiasm yesterday.

A hundred carcasses, 60 hams, 3,000 loaves of bread, 1,200 gallons of burgoo and dead loads of other good things went to make up the bill of fare.

Our friend Jim Maret, of Mt. Vernon, was there and so were Messrs. Joe Craft and George Farris, of London. Mrs. Craft came this far with her husband.

The "burgler" soup, as an old lady called it, was delightful and there were 1,200 gallons of it. The crowd commenced eating at 11 and from that time till the rain spoiled everything it fired and fell back without any disorder or scrambling. There was double enough for all and there was no use in crowding.

Col. W. S. Miller, who more than any other ten men deserves praise for the getting up and arrangement of the barbecue, was in his glory and came nearer attending to everything at once than a moral usually succeeds in such attempts. Everybody thanks him, Colonel Tomlinson and the other members of the committee for their efforts in making the barbecue a grand success.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—County court here last Monday.

—In the quarterly court here Wednesday W. H. Jackson & Co., liverymen, recanted judgment against Dough White, of Clay county, for $50 for killing a horse to death for them in March.

—The moonshiners who cut such a wide swath at East Bernstadt Saturday, were taken from the jail here Monday night by friends and are now at large. May the Lord have mercy on the East Bernstadt-ers!

—W. C. Webb announces himself as a labor candidate for the legislature in the district composed of Laurel and Rockcastle counties. John Melvin will probably make the race on the prohibition ticket, while Sam Ward will endeavor to lead the republican hosts to victory. We hope none of will be as badly left in August as the Hon. Walter Evans was Monday.

—Judge J. J. Paul, republican candidate for the Senate, has been mixing with our people for several days in the interest of his race. Squire B. R. Baker, chairman of the Prohibition Senatorial Committee, has decided to make the race on that ticket, since Chestnut's withdrawal and promises to make things pretty lively for the wearer of the numerous bible names.

—"Little Matt" Adams and Judge T. Z. Morrow did not put in an appearance here Monday as advertised, but Gen. Watt Harbin and the Hon. Walter Evans met in mortal debate and the ex-Commissioner of Internal Revenue came out second best by an overwhelming majority. Gen. Harbin admirably sustained his reputation as one of the most powerful stumpers in the State and fired up the democratic heart to a degree never before witnessed here. The republicans are correspondingly unhappy and it is understood they will likely make an effort to have Col. Swepe come here during the campaign and lay up the gaps in their badly dilapidated fences. The democrats will have the eloquent Joe Blackburn in that case and the last days of the race will even be worse than the first. We feel sorry for them, but the great fountain of tears cannot be turned loose in their behalf.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Jackson, Misses Lou Jackson and Poca Ewell and Mr. C. M. Randall left Wednesday evening on a camping expedition in the picturesque Cumberland Valley. They were well supplied with camping, fishing and hunting on file and will have a glorious good time. Mr. Joseph Owens will handle the mail during Postmaster Jackson's absence.

C. C. Williams, Esq., of Mt. Vernon, was in the city Monday. J. L. Yaden is in Indiana. Postmaster J. D. Adkins, Williamsburg, was in the city Tuesday. Mrs. W. B. Catching and Master Rocco are visiting in the interior of the State while Mr. Catching is in Michigan on business. H. P. Brown & Co. have moved their up-town grocery to the depot and J. R. Hodge & Co. will occupy the house vacated in same line. Mrs. Dr. N. M. Scaler is visiting in the country. Misses Maggie Davis and Alice Ward, of Crab Orchard, and Lillie White and Susie Sandidge, Hustonville, were visiting in this city. John E. John G. and Daugh W. White, T. T. Reid and other Clay county gentlemen were here attending the Jackson-White horse trial.

The practice of cultivating sunflowers is said to be rapidly increasing. Years ago their growth was confined pretty much to the gardens of cottagers and small farmers; and they were deemed a good anti malarial plant, equal at least to the boasted eucalyptus. Sunflowers in bloom are not only ornamental about the premises, but they have a good sanitary effect, and beside the seed is valuable for poultry food and as a basis for oil manufacture.

—It is computed that China has 450,000,000 people.

 —Dr. and Mrs. W. B. ARMSTRONG, of Owensboro, are spending a couple of months at Crab Orchard and Tuesday honored us with a call. Miss Jennie likes Owensboro but thinks there is no place like Crab Orchard.

LOCAL MATTERS.

PLENTY CASH NOW. T. H. Walton.
 THERE are four men in Stanford over 80 years of age, 10 over 75 and 18 over three score and ten.
 FIFTY to twenty dollars paid for old machines in exchange for new ones on monthly payments. T. Hampton.
 BATHS—George W. Goodrich has fitted up nice bath rooms at Rowland, where for 15 cents you can get a shower or a plunge.
 AN excursion will run on the Erie road from Cincinnati to Niagara Falls on the 21st at the low rate of $5 for the round trip.
 THERE are two rings in the Lincoln County Fair in which the premium is $100 each and all the premiums are very liberal. Remember the date, July 28th and 29th.
 OUR McKinney friends very effectively silence the absurd report that they are mostly Fox men in that section. The fact is there are only eight of the latter in town.
 HOUSE BURNED.—Hon. Gabe Lackey has information that his brother Sam C. Lackey lost his residence at Cuero, Texas, by fire. It was valued at $6,000, upon which he had an insurance for $3,500.
 THE Stanford Roller Mills are now turning out daily 50 barrels of as fine flour as you ever stuck your teeth in. Those who have tried it say it is equal, if not better, than the finest patent that comes here.
 RIGHT YOU ARE.—We have very good reports from Lincoln in the legislative race. The chances are that the pestilent demagogue, Bobbitt, will be left. The astonishing thing is that he should at any time, or under any circumstances, have been chosen to represent an intelligent constituency like the county of Lincoln can furnish.—[Danville Advocate].
 THE Building Association fund continues to grow and by tomorrow night, when an organization will be effected, 500 shares will have been subscribed. A great deal of the credit in getting it up is due to Captain Frank Harris, ably assisted by W. H. Miller. Each share is $100 and the subscribers will be required to pay on them only 25 cents a week. This goes into a fund to be loaned to any member of the association, or other party desiring it, to be secured by a mortgage on the building proposed to be erected. These institutions, by enabling those who could not raise the money other wise, have been of great assistance in securing homes and have been the real cause of the building up of many of our large cities. Then the stock pays in nearly every case a handsome dividend, thereby doubly benefiting the subscriber. The one at Lancaster paid 10 per cent. and all the stock being taken, association No. 2 is to be formed. A large number of the subscribers here are railroad men, many of whom propose to secure themselves homes at once.

ATTENTION.—The Both Privileges of the Lincoln County Stock Fair will be opened on Wednesday, July 20, to which time bids will be received therefor. J. H. BATHMAN, Treas.

LONDON has had a full delivery, as anybody might have predicted who had seen the building unenclosed by walls and so arranged that the prisoners could communicate with outsiders with little or no trouble.

A city declared Dr. E. T. Stephenson of unaccounted mind Tuesday and Sheriff Newland and Alex Stephenson took him to the Asylum at Lexington the same day. The cause of insanity is said to be hard study and excessive use of the drug that has wrecked so many lives, morphine.

I HAVE sold out my business at Junction City and ask those indebted to me to please come forward and settle. An early settlement will save both of us trouble and expense and I will have to put my accounts in the hands of an officer if they are not paid in a short while. J. W. VANDERHALL.

No republican who respects the memory of Col. Robert Bismarck can read the charge brought against him by Bobbitt, when his widow wanted to force the payment of money honestly due him and then cast his vote for such a blatherer. Go to the clerk's office and read the answer he filed to a suit brought to recover money he owed his estate.

A RUNAWAY COUPLE with several attendants came over from Garrard Tuesday and were married at Sheriff Tom Newland's by Rev. P. G. Bloom. They were Mr. A. T. Stephens and Miss E. L. Bismarck, the latter a number of years the senior of the groom. It was Mr. Bloom's first attempt at performing the ceremony and it is said that while he did it well he was so frightened that his knees smote each other so rapidly that he came near falling. The fee was not a large one, but it will do for a novice and here's hoping that the next wedding will be lined with gold dollars.

MARRIAGES.

—Miss Jennie, daughter of Secretary Loomis, is to marry her cousin, W. H. Loomis, on the 21st.
 —Stephen Renn, who is 65 and has been married three times, obtained license yesterday to marry Mrs. Julia Prewitt, who is 22 and has been a wife once before.

RELIGIOUS.

—Rev. W. C. Barnes is holding a meeting in Winchester.
 —Dr. Barbee has been elected book agent of the Southern Publishing House at Nashville to succeed Dr. McFerrin.
 —The Kentucky Methodist Conference Committee has decided to move the Wesleyan Female College from Millersburg to Winchester.
 —There will be a singing at Rush Branch next Sunday at 3 in the afternoon and Brother E. B. Bazley asks us to request a full attendance.
 —Winchester gives $67.918 11 and a lot worth $3,000 to get the Methodist College from Millersburg, which offered to add $20,000 to the endowment fund to retain it.
 —The General Association of Colored Baptists of Kentucky will meet with the First Baptist church in Georgetown on the 15th of August, to remain in session one week.
 —Rev. E. E. Evin, of Point Lick, will preach at the Court House next Sunday at 10:30 in place of Rev. A. S. Moffatt, who goes to Campbellsville to assist in the ordination of Rev. A. W. Crawford.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.

—Brown Bros., nurserymen, Pulaski, have failed for $12,000.
 —The first bale of cotton from Texas this season sold in New York at 23 cents per pound.
 —Sixty-two sheep, huddled together under a tree in Ohtemo, Mich., during Friday's storm, were killed by lightning.
 —A jockey named Harris was killed and another jockey had his arm broken in a collision on the race track at Brighton Beach.
 —WHEAT.—We are prepared to buy the new crop at the highest market price, delivered at Stanford, Rowland or any station in Lincoln county. J. B. Green will buy for us at Hustonville Wearen & Menefee.
 —Four Jennets sold in Scott county for $450 and a yearling for $75. Miller Snell bought of Hardin Rogers for George Pugh 35 lambs that averaged 104 pounds at 5 cents. Carefully prepared reports show that there are but 605 acres in tobacco in this county against 1,526 last year.—[Georgetown Times].

Card of Thanks.

[To the Editor of the Interior Journal.]
 I just wish to express, through your columns, the profound thanks of the family and myself for the offices of love and kindness, of everyone toward our beloved departed. The efforts at the nuptials to make us happy, and the efforts at the funeral to soften away the sharpness of grief are with out parallel in our knowledge. We remember in connection with all the brightened joy of the marriage and also in connection with all the tributes allaying grief. We fervently thank all.
 J. L. D. CHANDLER.

—Clifton T. Haggard, a wealthy and much loved citizen of Clark, died last week aged 61. He was a relative of Mrs. Robert McAllister, of this place.
 —Marshall Wells arrested in Salem, Ind., Charles Carroll, charged with burglarizing a store at Junction City. Carroll obtained $100 in money besides jewelry and other valuables.

BROOKHEAD, ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

—It is scorching in the order of the day.
 —The health of the neighborhood is tolerably good.
 —A delegation from our village will hold a temperance meeting at Adams school house on next Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock.
 —Died, on the 11th inst., of blood poisoning, Mrs. Pattie Hoskins, aged 31. She was loved by all who knew her and is now sadly missed by her many friends.
 —The good citizens of Brookhead are delighted to know that Mr. John Melvin, of Lily, will make the race for representative of Rockcastle and Laurel counties.
 —Uncle Jim Woodyard, a worthy citizen of this place, on last Sunday morning while walking around the saw mill of Frith Brothers, caught his foot in some way under some lumber and fell, cutting a very painful and ugly wound over one eye. He is rapidly improving and it is hoped that he will soon be able to resume his duties again.
 —Miss Dollie Burdett, who has been visiting several weeks in Casey county, returned home this week, accompanied by her friend, Mr. Geo. Prewitt. Miss Sallie Rowland, of Williamsburg, is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. J. L. Brooks. Mrs. Rowland and little Mattie, were the guests of Mrs. Brooks last week. Miss Maggie Davis and other friends, of Crab Orchard, are the guests of Miss Susie B. Woodyard. John Vanhook and friend, Barnett, will leave in a few days for the far West.

JANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wassell, from Louisville, have opened a dancing school in the third story over Lazarus' dry goods store.
 —The mail service between this point and Louisville has been in bad shape for 10 days past and should be put through a patient improved leather renovator.
 —Mrs. Clark, widow of the late James Clark, removed on Wednesday to Lexington, where John, the eldest son, has employment with the electric light company.
 —Morris Yelzer has sold to the East and Dumb Asylum authorities his house and lot and all improvements on 21 street, with 150 feet of ground fronting on 24 street and running back to 31 street, for $3,000. Possession given August 1st.
 —Mr. W. G. Eakin, of the Tribune, who has been with Colonel W. D. Bradley in his travels in search of the governorship, returned Wednesday. He and Bradley together left Richmond and went straight to the Virginia line, the Colonel speaking in all the counties. They parted at Ashland on Tuesday.
 —Mrs. Beanie McGowan and daughter, Lullie, left Tuesday for a visit of several weeks to the watering places of Virginia. W. O. Goodloe and Miss Mittie Bent have returned from a visit to friends in Madison county. Colonel I. N. Sheppard, a former citizen of Danville, now clerk of the Wayne circuit court, was in town Tuesday and Wednesday.
 —Kate and Mattie, little twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Christian, were buried at 10 o'clock Tuesday. The latter died about 1 o'clock on Monday. Kate the evening before as already announced. They were sweet, interesting children and the idols of their parents. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. E. H. Pierce and were held at the Walnut street M. E. Church South.
 —The remains of Emma J., daughter of Louis and Sallie M. Durham, arrived from Cincinnati on Tuesday evening and were interred in the cemetery Wednesday at 10 o'clock A. M. Emma died of inflammatory rheumatism, aggravated perhaps by a cold bath imprudently taken. She was nine years old. Mr. Durham is a son of Hon. M. J. Durham, his wife a daughter of J. R. Nichols of this place.
 —At a meeting of Utopia Lodge No. 33 Knights of Pythias, Tuesday night, the following preamble and resolution by P. A. Marks was adopted: WHEREAS, This lodge has learned of the great sorrow which has overtaken our brothers, James S. Christian and L. H. Durham, therefore, Resolved, That we extend to them and their families our heartfelt sympathies over the loss of their little ones so suddenly taken from them; that a copy of this resolution be sent to each of them and that it be recorded on the books of the lodge.
 —Before County Judge Lee on Monday evening, Sol and Bob Williams, two negroes from Paris, charged with swindling James Shearen out of a small amount of money, were given 60 days each in the work-house. Stephen Scott, charged with unlawful shooting without wounding was fined $100, in default of payment he was sent to the work-house. Wesley Withers, for riding a horse belonging to another person without permission of the owner—$60 fine. Not having the cash he went to the work house and so did William Rogers for 60 days for petit larceny.
 —The huge United States flag, belonging to the democrats of Boyle county was on Tuesday shipped to Lancaster to be used at the barbecue in Elkin's woods to-day (Thursday). This flag was bought in Cincinnati and cost about $67, at the time it was certainly known that Cleveland had been elected president. Prior to that time on the occasion of republican victories, the coming of the 4th of July, Lincoln's birthday, etc, it was the custom of loyal republicans to show off their loyalty by displaying near the postoffice a large Union flag. When Cleveland was elected the democrats wanted to show their loyalty and the joy of their hearts by flying the same flag to the breeze. They asked the republicans to lend it to them for that purpose. They refused and hence the purchase of the flag first referred to.

 —Charles Johnson alias Charles Carroll, whose exploits have heretofore been recorded in the Interior Journal, in connection with the robbery of a peddler near Stanford, was arrested by the sheriff of Salem, Indiana, Monday and turned over to Marshal George Wells and George T. Helm, of Junction City, and by them he was brought here and lodged in jail Tuesday. Charles is wanted for the robbery of Hilton's store at Junction City last Friday night, when he captured $100 in cash and $10 or $12 worth of jewelry. He distributed some of the jewelry among some boys at Junction City and that gave him away. Charles is certainly an irrepressible thief and displayed considerable shrewdness in some respects in his last robbery, but with all that, those who know him best think him mentally unbalanced and a fit subject for a lunatic asylum.

GARRARD COUNTY DEPARTMENT.

Lancaster.

—Logan & Sandifer will begin their brick making at once.
 —The Baptist Sunday school picnic was held at Joel Walker's Wednesday.
 —Jim Woodcock, a republican, came to town Wednesday and went home loaded with democratic flags. He is now solid for Buckner.
 —There is no news now except barbed wire; nothing else is thought of or talked about. So you must make no complaint of my report.
 —Gus Jaubert, Esq., of Lexington, is in town. Miss Bettie Drye, of Hustonville, is visiting at Mrs. Jane E. Young's. Misses Sadie and Jesse Cook are visiting Miss Fievie Cook.
 —Licenses was issued to A. T. Stephens and Miss Ella Benumont, who were married Tuesday; also to A. L. Latham and Miss M. A. Whitehead. The latter couple were made one by Judge W. E. Walker.
 —Lancaster is doing herself proud. All the buildings are being decorated. It has been a long time since we had an opportunity to show our patriotism and we embrace the opportunity. With the best President the world ever saw now ruling, good crops and fine weather, why shouldn't we rejoice?
 —I have just returned from the barbecue grounds. Everything there is in ship shape order. Messrs. Gus Jaubert and F. M. Stegar, assisted by a competent corps of assistants, are preparing the auction and show for the feast. It made my mouth water to see the carcasses ready for roasting. The kettles for the barbecue are being and they look large enough to hold all the crowd will want.
